Martin Luther KING JR.

SKOOLGO

Martin Luther King Jr. was an American Baptist minister and activist who became the most visible spokesperson and leader in the civil rights movement from 1954 until his assassination in 1968. He was born on January 15, 1929, in Atlanta, Georgia, and grew up in a time when segregation and racial discrimination were prevalent in the United States. Despite these challenges, King became a charismatic and passionate speaker who advocated for equal rights and nonviolence.

King's most famous speech, "I Have a Dream," was delivered on August 28, 1963, during the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom. In this powerful and memorable speech, King spoke about his dream of a world where people of all races lived together in harmony and were judged not by the color of their skin but by the content of their character. He also called for an end to segregation and discrimination, and for full equality for African Americans.

King's leadership and commitment to nonviolence inspired a generation of activists, and his message of hope and equality continues to inspire people around the world today. He was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964 and is widely regarded as one of the most influential figures in American history.
