

Who is?

Mother TERESA

SKOOLGO

Mother Teresa, also known as Saint Teresa of Calcutta, was a Catholic nun and humanitarian who devoted her life to serving the poor and sick. Born in 1910 in Skopje, now the capital of North Macedonia, she joined the Sisters of Loreto, an Irish congregation of nuns, at the age of 18 and was sent to India where she spent the rest of her life.

In 1948, Mother Teresa received a call from God to serve the poorest of the poor and founded the Missionaries of Charity, an order of nuns dedicated to caring for those in need. She established homes for the sick, orphans, and dying and worked tirelessly to bring hope and comfort to those who were suffering. Mother Teresa's selfless dedication and compassionate service earned her widespread recognition and respect, and she received numerous honors, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979.

Throughout her life, Mother Teresa was known for her simple lifestyle and her tireless commitment to helping others. Despite the harsh conditions and challenges she faced, she remained optimistic and dedicated to her work, inspiring countless others to follow in her footsteps. After her death in 1997, Mother Teresa was beatified by the Catholic Church and is on the path to canonization as a saint.

Who is?

Mother TERESA

SKOOLGO

Mother Teresa, also known as Saint Teresa of Calcutta, was a Catholic nun and humanitarian who devoted her life to serving the poor and sick. Born in 1910 in Skopje, now the capital of North Macedonia, she joined the Sisters of Loreto, an Irish congregation of nuns, at the age of 18 and was sent to India where she spent the rest of her life.

In 1948, Mother Teresa received a call from God to serve the poorest of the poor and founded the Missionaries of Charity, an order of nuns dedicated to caring for those in need. She established homes for the sick, orphans, and dying and worked tirelessly to bring hope and comfort to those who were suffering. Mother Teresa's selfless dedication and compassionate service earned her widespread recognition and respect, and she received numerous honors, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979.

Throughout her life, Mother Teresa was known for her simple lifestyle and her tireless commitment to helping others. Despite the harsh conditions and challenges she faced, she remained optimistic and dedicated to her work, inspiring countless others to follow in her footsteps. After her death in 1997, Mother Teresa was beatified by the Catholic Church and is on the path to canonization as a saint.

Who is?

Mother TERESA

SKOOLGO

Name: _____

➡ Answer the questions about the brief biography:

1. Who was Mother Teresa?

2. What religious order did Mother Teresa belong to?

3. What was Mother Teresa's impact on the lives of the poor and sick?

4. What recognition and honors did Mother Teresa receive during her lifetime?

5. Why is Mother Teresa considered an inspiration for people around the world?
